

Lt. Col. Johnny Workman Jr.

Lt.Col. JohnnyWorkman is a native of High point, N.C. He was commissioned as a second lieutenant from Duke University in August of 1995.

Workman's military education includes: field artillery officer basic course in 1996, Paladin commander's course 1999, field artillery officer advance course 1999, combined arms and services staff school in 2000, and command & general staff college in 2008.

Workman has served in a variety of assignments, including: platoon leader, 2ND BN 17TH FA Korea, AND 3RD BN, 13TH FA, Fort Sill OK, BATTALION S1, 3RD BN, 13TH FA, Fort Sill OK, BATTALION S4 3RD BN, 82TH FA, Fort Hood, Texas, Battery Commander 3RD BN, 82TH FA, Fort Hood, Texas; officer basic course and captain career course instructor, Fort Sill Okla.; Division AFSCOORD 1ST CAV Division, Fort Hood Texas; BDE FSCOORD 1STBDE, 1AD, Battalion XO, 2NDBN, 3RD FA, Fort Bliss Texas; battalion commander, 2ND BN, 307TH FA, Camp Atterbury Ind.

His awards and decorations include: Bronze Star Medal (one oak leaf cluster), Meritorious Service Medal (three oak leaf cluster) Army Commendation Medal (three oak leaf clusters), National Defense Service Medal (bronze service star), Global War on Terrorism Expeditionary Medal (four bronze service stars), Southwest Asia Service Medal, The Army Service Ribbon, Primary Leadership Development Ribbon, Korean Service Medal.