

Command Sgt. Maj. Robert L. Clark

Command Sgt. Maj. Robert L. Clark is a native of St. Stephens, S.C. His assignments have included Basic Training and Advance Individual Training with the 2nd Training Battalion at Fort Sill, Oklahoma; 1st Battalion, 10th Field Artillery, and with the 5th Battalion, 41st Field Artillery, in Schweinfurt, Germany where he was a advanced party man, howitzer driver, gunner, assistant supply clerk, unit armorer, and section chief; 3rd Battalion, 41st Field Artillery, at Fort Stewart, Ga., as a gunner and section chief; 2nd Battalion, 39th Infantry Regiment, at Fort Jackson, S.C., as a drill sergeant; 1st Battalion, 61st Infantry "The Best Lead the Rest" Regiment and the Reception Battalion at Fort Jackson, S.C., as a senior drill sergeant; 1st Battalion, 37th Field Artillery, at Fort Lewis, Wash., as chief of the firing battery (platoon sergeant), battalion ammunition NCOIC, and 1st Sgt. of Charlie Battery with the 3rd Brigade, 2nd Infantry Division (SBCT). He served as the Battalion Command Sgt. Maj. of 4th Battalion 27th Field Artillery Regiment, 2BCT, 1AD, Baumholder, Germany. He also served as the Directorate sergeant major for the Fires Test Directorate, Fort Sill, Okla.

His deployments include of three tours to Iraq, one as a First Seargent and two as a Battalion command sergeant major.

Clark is a graduate of numerous educational courses such as PLDC, BNCOC, ANCOG, Combat Life Savers Course, Artillery School, Drill Sergeant School, Unit Movement Course, Small Arms Course, Field Sanitation Course, Command Sergeants Major Course which includes the United States Army Sergeants Major School, at Fort Bliss, Texas, and he holds an associate degree in Business Administration from Columbia Junior College, S.C. and an associate degree in Administration Management from Excelsior College, N.Y.

His awards and decorations include three Bronze Star Medal, five Meritorious Service Medals, one Army Commendation Medal, eight Army Achievement Medals, the Army Good Conduct Award (eight awards) and numerous foreign and service awards. He has also been awarded the Drill Sergeant Identification Badge and the Drivers (T) Badge. He is a member of the Sergeant Audie Murphy Club, recipient of the Ancient Order and the Honorable Order of Saint Barbara and the Noble Patron of Armor.