

CSM Michael T. Boyd was born in Villa Rica, Ga. He graduated from Villa Rica High School in 1983. He entered the United States Army in November 1986 and graduated from Basic Combat Training (BCT) at Fort Bliss, Texas. Boyd graduated from the Radio Teletype Operator Advanced Individual Training (AIT) at Fort Gordon, Ga., in January, 1987.

Boyd's first active duty assignment was with the 334th Ordnance Company, in Wildflecken, Germany, from March, 1987 to October, 1989. Boyd left the active Army and joined the Active Guard Reserve (AGR) program, in November, 1989. His first AGR assignment was at Fort Lee, Va., where he served as a unit clerk, with the 377th Chemical Company, from November, 1989 to September, 1992. From September, 1992 to October, 1995, Boyd continued serving as a 42A, but this time, it was with the 288th Quartermaster Company, Victoria, Texas. From October, 1995 to December, 1995, Boyd attended the Construction Equipment Repairer Military Occupational Specialty (MOS) AIT, at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. From December, 1995 to August, 2000, Boyd served as the 244th engineer battalion motor sergeant, Fort Collins, Colo.

Boyd then spent from August, 2000 to September, 2001 in the Individual Ready Reserve (IRR), before continuing to serve in the United States Army Reserve. From September, 2001 to January, 2003 Boyd served as a platoon sergeant transportation specialist/detachment noncommissioned officer in charge (NCOIC), for the 1st Detachment, 352nd Engineer Support Company, Bryan/College Station, Texas. He also served as the motor sergeant, for the Headquarters and Headquarters Company (HHC), 244th Engineer Battalion, Tikrit, Iraq, during Operation Iraqi Freedom, from February, 2003 to April, 2004. Boyd then served as a 1SG, for the 352nd Engineer Support Company, Yoakum, Texas, from April, 2004 to May, 2008. From June to September, 2008, Boyd served as the 420th Engineer Brigade operations NCOIC, in Bryan, Texas. Boyd once again served as a 1SG, for the 391st Engineer Battalion's forward support company, in Greenville, S. C., from September, 2008 to April, 2011. Boyd served as the 391st Engineer Battalion's acting CSM from April to November, 2011. From November, 2011 to May, 2012, Boyd once again served as the 391st Engineer Battalion's Forward Support Company 1SG; in Greenville, S.C. Boyd became the 2nd/349th Logistical Support Battalion CSM on May 1st, 2012.

Military and civilian education includes the Radio Teletype Operator Course ; German Head Start; USAR Orientation Course; USAR Records and SIDPERS Course; Personnel Administration Course; Warrior Leader Course; Logistics Management Development Course; Basic Skills and Preparatory Command Course; Introduction to Defense Financial Management; Introduction to Management in Logistics; Center Level Application System Training; Construction Equipment Repairer; Environmental Compliance Training; Personnel Admin Course; ULLS-G Supervisor Training; Advanced Leader Course; Combat Engineer Training; Army Reserve Technician Training; Unit Administration Basic Course; Senior Leader Course; Facility Manager Course; First Sergeant Course; Army Training Requirements and Resource Systems; Unit Status Reporting Training Course; Security Manager Course; Combat Engineer Course.

Command Sergeant Major Boyd's awards and decorations include the Bronze Star Medal; Meritorious Service Medal w/3 Oak Leaf Clusters; Army Commendation Medal w/2 Oak Leaf Clusters; Army Achievement Medal w/ 3 Oak Leaf Clusters; Army Good Conduct Medal (4th Award); Iraqi Campaign Medal; National Defense Service Medal w/1 Bronze Star; Army Reserve Components Achievement

Medal w/2 Oak Leaf Clusters; Army NCO Professional Development Ribbon w/number 3; Armed Forces Reserve Medal w/"M" device; Global War and Terrorism Medal; Army Reserve Components Overseas Training Ribbon; Army Overseas Service Ribbon; Army Service Ribbon; Combat Action Badge; Marksman Qualification Badge M-16 (SS)/9-MM (MM); Mechanics Badge; Drivers Badge; and the Army Physical Fitness Badge.