

Command Sergeant Major Henry Jones Jr.

Command Sgt. Maj. Henry Jones Jr. began his military career in 1977 when he volunteered to join the United States Army. He enlisted to serve as an Infantryman and attended Basic Training Ft. at Leonard wood, Mo.

December 31, 2008, Jones was appointed as the command sergeant major of the 3/349th LSB. He has held several noncommissioned officer positions: command sergeant major of 3/346th Regt. Camp Shelby, Ms., sergeant major of 377th Theater Support Command G-1 Belle Chase, La., first sergeant of 1/378th Lafayette, La., Operation Sergeant 1/378th Lafayette, La., Senior Drill Instructor 1/378th Lafayette, La., and Drill Instructor 1/95th Regt. Alexandria, La.

His military education includes the United States Army Sergeant Major Academy (USASMA) he graduated May 2006, First Sergeant Course, Drill Sergeant Course, Company Trainer Course, Training Management Course, and the required NCOES Schools.

His military awards and decorations includes the ARCOM (2ND award), Army Reserves Components Achievement Medal (6th award), National Defense Service Medal (2nd award), Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, Army Services Ribbons, Army Achievement Medal (5th award), NCO Professional Development Ribbons, and Drill Instructor Badge.